A FARCICAL PRIMARY

The Primary Held In Louisville Yesterday a Frost.

Only One Faction Voted and the Vote Polled Was Very Small.

YOUNG'S PRIMARY JULY 30

Louisville, May 27.—Under conditions bordering on the farcical the primary was carried out yesterday by the Democrats for city and county officers, which was called off by one faction of the Democrats and endorsed by another. Policemen and tellers were on duty at each polling place, but owing to the uncertainty existing as to the legality of the election the attendance of voters was small.

Nearly every saloonkeeper in the city opened his place of business as usual, but at 9 o'clock the police acting on orders of Mayor Grainger, closed all drinking places and arrested a number of proprietors. The saloon men in opening acted on a ruling by Judge McCann in the police court, who recognized the state committee and announced that the primary was not legal and that the saloons could remain open. Early in the morning, however, Mayor Grainger issued a proclamation ordering all saloons closed and insisted on its enforcement.

The trouble was brought about by a clash between the state central committee and the city and county organizations of the Democratic party. The legality of the primary will, it is believed, be settled later by the courts.

On the request of the city and county Democratic committee Judge Caruth granted an injunction against Allie W. Young, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, restraining him from deposing the local committee and from interfering with the primary set for yesterday. Chairman Neal of the local committee notified Mr. Young that the local committee refused to recognize the resolution of the state committee calling off the primary, and immediately Mr. Young sent notices to the members of the local committee removing them and appointing a new committee. A new chairman was at once chosen by the new local committee, and being organized the committee called off the primary set for yesterday, fixing July 30 as the date.

John W. Vreeland, member of the state central committee from the Louisville district, reappointed the deposed local committee, but Chairman Young refused to ratify the appointments. Service on Judge Caruth's injunction was not had on Mr. Young. It is charged that Mr. Young is in contempt of court, and his arrest is expected.

Last night the adherents of the faction which revolted against Chairman Young's order and held the primary claim that 11,000 votes were cast during the day. The count shows that the set of candidates said to be favored by this faction received practically all the votes, the greatest number given any candidate supposed to be in favor of Chairman Young's plans being about 2,000. The Young adherents claim that only 2,000 votes were cast. This faction will hold a primary July 30.

Mr. James Sevier went to Jackson, Tenn., this morning on business.

MAY BE A CONFESSION

White and Jett, Alleged Murderers, in Jail at Jackson.

More Soldiers May Be Needed at the Seat of War—Startling Rumors.

PROMINENT MEN IN FEAR

Jackson, Ky., May 27.—The capture of Tom White and the return of Curtis Jett to Breathitt county were events of yesterday in the investigation of the murder of J. B. Marcum, on which chief interest focused. The question of whether more troops are needed is agitating the minds of many. While nothing has occurred to arouse apprehension, there have been suggestions that do not make all feel secure. The authorities feel that more troops are needed they will be badly needed, and that any emergency will be abrupt.

There is a well defined belief that when Jett and White are put on trial there will be a confession, and that a number of prominent men may be implicated. It is argued that an army of men could be quickly gotten together in the interior of Breathitt county. It could swoop down on Jackson, and under the pretext of lynching secure the prisoners, possibly kill some one who possessed knowledge, and apply the adage that "dead men tell no tales." It is true that this would be a desperate undertaking, but desperate things have been done in Breathitt county, and this view may not seem as impregnable there as it would seem elsewhere. At any rate, Mrs. J. B. Marcum, her friends and a number of others are urging that more troops be sent, believing that the men now here and scattered among various stations could not cope with a mob of mountain men. A consultation among officers was held today, but further than ordering another galling gun from Louisville there is no indication that reinforcements will be required.

Tom White was arrested at the home of his mother, 18 miles from here, by a squad of soldiers under Deputy Sheriff Little, who made the arrest. The house was surrounded and White was called out. When he reached the fence the warrant was read, and accompanied by soldiers he returned to the house and dressed. The party reached here shortly after noon, and White was remanded until tomorrow morning, when he and Jett will be arraigned together.

At the advice of his attorney, Judge John Noble, he declined to make a statement.

James Johnson, a nephew of the late J. B. Marcum, guided the soldiers to where White was found.

Elior B. J. Little and twelve soldiers went to Winchester and the order for Jett was honored by Judge Benton. He was placed in irons and arrived here and was committed to jail. He has employed B. F. French, of Winchester, as counsel. An effort will be made by his attorney to get a change of venue. If this fails he will endeavor to have the jury summoned from outside of Breathitt county.

The impression is strong that the conspiracies which have culminated in the series of assassinations in Breathitt county will be traced to the fountain head and startling developments are expected this week. Jett is bitter against the officials of Breathitt county, whom he claimed as friends, and whom he blames for not coming to his relief. It is not known what he expected of them, but he is bitterly disappointed.

CAT OUT OF THE BAG

Trustees Admit That Meetings Were Held, But Not Secret.

The Alleged Reasons Teachers Were to be Notified Not to Apply.

MUCH INTEREST IS AROUSED

The reported action of the board of education in deciding to notify certain teachers not to apply for re-election next month, has aroused much interest throughout the city. It is now openly admitted that Prof. C. A. Norvell, principal of the Washington school on West Broadway, and Miss Emma Morgan, principal of the Jefferson school on North Eighth, are marked for decapitation at the annual election. It is stated that when one teacher asked a member of the board what charges there were the latter replied "none," and a member of the board stated today that there "did not have to be any." Another member, however, stated that the reason it had been decided to drop Prof. Norvell was because they had in sight a man who they thought could give better satisfaction, while the reason Miss Morgan would not be elected principal is that the patrons of the Jefferson school demand a male principal, and that she can get a place as teacher if she wants it.

As to Prof. Snider, it is claimed there was never any opposition to him, and he could be re-elected if he wanted a position. It is now admitted by members of the board that meetings have been held to discuss the above matters but it is claimed they were not "secret" meetings. It is said a man named Payne from Illinois has been slated to succeed Prof. Norvell, while Prof. Sugg, of Kentucky, is to succeed Prof. Snider, who resigns to study medicine.

One member of the board stated today that it was decided to notify the two principals in advance was simply through courtesy, and save them the humiliation of defeat. Prof. Norvell has been in the school here ten or twelve years, and Miss Morgan longer, and both have always been considered among the most capable teachers in the school. Miss Morgan has been principal in the schools for several years past, and the people always seemed satisfied with her.

ANOTHER NEW ROAD

Prospects Seem Good for Getting the Wabash Here.

Officials Addressed a Meeting Last Night and a Committee Was Appointed.

WILL CANVASS THE CITY

A meeting of the Commercial club and other interested citizens was held at the city hall last night for the purpose of hearing a proposition from the Toledo, St. Louis and New Orleans railroad relative to building into Paducah from Brookport.

President Stanley DuBois, of the Commercial club, was in the chair, and Judge E. B. Green, of Carmi, Ill., counsel for the new road, a prominent member of the Illinois bar and former member of the supreme bench of that state, was first introduced and stated that the road desired to come into Paducah and would do so for a bonus of $150,000. In addition to the many advantages to be derived from the entrance of the new road, he declared that six times the above amount will be expended in building terminals here and other things.

The supposition is that the Wabash owns the Toledo, St. Louis and New Orleans, which will run from Effingham, Ill., via Golconda to Brookport. At Paducah connections could be made by the Wabash with the N. C. and St. L. for the coast, giving it a direct line. Judge Green stated that in case the road did come here, he was confident it would be only four or five years until a bridge is built over the Ohio at Paducah.

President W. M. Burns, of the road, also addressed those present, his talk being along the same line as Judge Green's. Alderman Singleton at the conclusion of the speech moved that a committee of three be appointed by President DuBois to investigate the feasibility of raising the $150,000 desired by the road.

The motion prevailed, one member of the committee to be a city official, one a member of the Commercial club and the other a citizen not affiliated. There is no special time set for the report.

President DuBois this morning appointed the committee, consisting of Alderman G. G. Singleton, Mr. B. H. Scott from the city at large and Mr. W. F. Paxton of the Commercial club. A meeting was set for 10 o'clock this morning, but was deferred, and there is no time set for it at present.

This committee will inaugurate a canvass in Paducah to secure funds. It is tipped off that Paducah will get the road, but something will have to be given for it. Just what this is cannot be determined now.

The committee will make a report when its work is sufficiently advanced to enable it to do so.

The visiting officials were today driven over the city by Mr. B. H. Scott, and left on the Joe Fowler for Golconda, which place their road will touch, making an air line directly south from Effingham, Ill., to Paducah. They expect to return shortly for another conference.

A TORNADO'S TRAIL

Nine Killed by a Storm at Elmo, Missouri.

Inmates of An Iowa Insane Asylum Meet Sudden Fates.

MUCH DAMAGE IS DONE

NINE KILLED BY TORNADO.

Blanchard, Iowa, May 27.—A destructive and fatal tornado struck Elmo, Mo., eight miles south of Blanchard, and just across the Missouri state line, last evening. Nine were killed outright and five were injured, some of whom may die. The dead are C. C. Calhoun, Cassius Bell, J. Alvis Leonard Bradley, Minton Huff, Gus Huff, Oren Strangler, D. L. Staker, George Perry.

Des Moines, Ia., May 27.—Iowa has been storm-swept for the past twenty-four hours. Three tornadoes resulted in the loss of two lives, the serious injury of a score of people, besides great property loss.

Dead at Glenwood—Maggie Getner, Hazel Wright.

Near Buxton—Georgia Buxton, Herbert Rhodes.

At South Des Moines—Russell A. Krauff, aged 30 years; Floyd Krauff, his 8 months old son.

The victims at Glenwood were all inmates of the school for the feeble-minded, where the storm struck at 9:30 p. m. The tornado struck the girls' dormitory, commonly known as the old building, first. The roof was torn off and fell back upon the wrecked building. All of the buildings of the group, including the hospital, were more or less damaged by the storm.

During the past twenty-four hours heavy rains have been general over Iowa. In Des Moines 2.8 inches of water fell. A cloudburst at Adel yesterday afternoon caused a precipitation of more than 5 inches in a few hours. Heavy rains are reported from Webster City and other points. The Upper Des Moines river is rising rapidly, and a repetition of the flood condition of last June is feared. The river here stands at 11 feet above low water mark, having risen a few inches today. The local weather bureau predicts that the floods from the upper river will reach here tomorrow.

Iowa railroads suffered severely from excessive rainfall and trains into Des Moines are from three to five hours late on all lines. Superintendent Horton of the Des Moines and Sioux City branch of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul last night suspended all traffic until the roadbed can be examined.

BROUGHT HIS NERVE

Princeton Man Comes Down to Get Automobile.

But Instead of the Machine He Gets the Cold Shoulder All Around.

HE VISITS CHAIRMAN LANG

Constable Campbell of Princeton came in late yesterday afternoon and called on Mr. Will V. Green at the Petter boat store and wanted to get the automobile given away last week and drawn by Miss Sophie Luttrell. The young lady boards with Mr. and Mrs. Green, and Mr. Green has charge of the machine. He informed the Caldwell county officer that he would most certainly not get the automobile, notwithstanding his claim that he left the ticket with the young lady but a few minutes when he gave her the ticket, and had he desired to leave the ticket with anyone for the purpose of claiming what it might draw he would doubtless have left it with some of his friends. Instead he gave it to the young lady outright, and the authorities will see that she and no one else gets it.

When Campbell was told how things stood he seemed to be satisfied that he couldn't work the game and left.

Campbell waited at Lang's drug store several hours for Chairman Lang of the drawing committee, and when Dr. Lang returned from the baseball game claimed that he didn't give the young lady the ticket. He admitted, however, that Mr. John Bebout, who was also with the young lady, states that Campbell did give it to her, that the young lady says so, and that he, Campbell, has absolutely no proof that he didn't give it to her.

Chairman Lang stated to Campbell that all his committee had to do was to devise a fair means of giving away the automobile, and this duty it had performed, being discharged by the Carnival association. The automobile was turned over to the young lady who had a ticket for it, and this ends the matter so far as the committee is concerned. The ownership of the ticket, if there is any dispute over it, will have to be settled elsewhere, as the committee has nothing to do with that.

Campbell said the young lady was willing to abide by the decision of the committee, but Dr. Lang informed him that the committee had been discharged from further service, and significantly declared that he would never consent to act as arbiter in a matter in which his mind was already made up. He then told the young man frankly that he had no case and was making a mistake in agitating a matter so plain, and Campbell left.

The young lady's friends will never permit Campbell to get the automobile. There seems to be no way Campbell can get it. Even if he proved the ticket was his it would not establish a legal ownership to the automobile, as the latter was given to the young lady by the carnival association and winning anything in a drawing does not, it is claimed, establish a legal ownership, and the young lady owns the automobile, not because the ticket made her the legal owner, but because the men who bought it and gave it away made her a present of it and declare that she shall have it.

THE JONES WILL.

$60,000,000 WILL BE DISTRIBUTED THROUGH IT.

Pittsburg, May 27—The will of Benjamin F. Jones, the well known steel manufacturer, was filed for probate before Register George Stengel late this afternoon. No estimate is made of the value of the estate, but it is said by those who should know to be not less than $60,000,000.

The will is dated January 14, 1903, and named as executors and trustees Major George M. Laughlin, Willis L. King and E. F. Jones, Jr.

The widow is to get the income from the bulk of the estate, the remainder going to the four children. At Mrs. Jones' death the income from her estate is to be divided equally among the children. These trusts are to continue until the death of the last of the four children, when the principal is to be divided equally among all the testator's grandchildren.

ARE TO CONSOLIDATE

Southern and M. & O. Railroads to Be Merged.

Name "Mobile and Ohio" May be Abandoned July 1.

Atlanta, Ga., May 27—The Constitution says:

The Southern railway and the Mobile and Ohio railway will consolidate July 1 if there is no hitch in the present plans of the arrangement of those roads.

This information has not yet been officially announced, but it is learned on good authority that such is the intention of the controlling interests of the two railways.

The Southern has owned a majority of the stock of the Mobile and Ohio for some time, and it was the intention to consolidate them in April, but the fact that there was considerable legislative excitement at that time in the state of Mississippi caused the management of the Southern to postpone the matter. It was deemed the wiser course to wait until this feeling had somewhat subsided before making public the fact that the two great systems would be united under one management.

It is probable that the name of the Mobile and Ohio will be used no longer than July, and that thereafter the lines composing that system will be operated under the name of the Southern Railway Co.

A CONCERT SINGER

BRINGS SUIT AGAINST MRS. ELIZABETH CRONK FOR ASSAULT.

Chicago, May 27—A damage suit for $10,000 as a sequel to a sensational attack of Mrs. Elizabeth V. Cronk of Omaha, Neb., on Mrs. Cora Lathrop Patterson, a concert singer, on an Illinois Central train at Council Bluffs, Ia., a week ago last Saturday, has been filed in the superior court. According to Mrs. Patterson Mrs. Cronk attacked her as she was about to enter the train. The former was accompanied by her 9 year old son. It is asserted that Mrs. Cronk saw the plaintiff as she was stepping onto the platform. Pushing to the doorway, it is alleged, Mrs. Cronk accused the concert singer of having caused family discord, and declared that Mrs. Patterson was going on the same train to see Mr. Cronk. Mrs. Patterson says blows "were rained upon her by the defendant," and the performance was completed by Mrs. Cronk flourishing a revolver and threatening the life of the concert singer.

George Parkman Cronk, the husband of the defendant, is the supreme exalted ruler of the order of Elks, and, accompanied by his wife, was on his way to Washington to attend the dedication of the Elks' home.

OWED A MILLION

MAN DISCHARGED IN BANKRUPTCY FOR THIS SUM.

Trenton, N. J., May 27—Judge Kirkpatrick, in the United States district court, has made an order discharging in bankruptcy Francis D. Carley, a New York stock broker. Carley made an application about three years ago to be adjudged bankrupt, stating his liabilities at the time to be slightly in excess of $1,000,000. Carley's discharge from bankruptcy has been fought by the Kentucky National bank and others. The bank recently sought to amend its specifications and charged that Carley in some of his stock transactions had been acting for William K. Vanderbilt, and in this way sought to have brought in as assets certain stock which stood in Mr. Vanderbilt's name. Mr. Vanderbilt denied that Carley had acted for him and Judge Kirkpatrick refused to permit the amending of the specifications. The case was carried to the United States circuit court of appeals, which sustained Judge Kirkpatrick. The order is the result of that decision.

MAYOR CAN'T PARDON

Lexington Decision of Interest to Second Class Cities.

The Court Holds the Mayor Cannot Pardon Prisoners, Knocking Out a Charter Provision.

NEVER BEEN TRIED HERE

Mayor D. A. Yeiser has never since the city entered the second class, exercised the power given him by the second class charter to pardon a prisoner in the lockup, and the probability now is, never will, as the court has decided that this provision of the charter is unconstitutional.

The decision was handed down at Lexington, where Circuit Judge Parker held that Section 3111 of the Kentucky Statutes was at variance with the constitution.

The matter came up in the habeas corpus proceedings in the case of Eugene Mahone, who was confined in the county jail, says yesterday's Lexington Leader. The question before the court involved the pardoning power of the mayor in cities of the second class.

Mahone was tried in the police court several days ago on a charge of carrying a weapon concealed and was fined $25 and costs and sentenced to the county jail for thirty days. Shortly afterwards he was pardoned by Mayor Duncan and Jailer Robert Wallace, who held the prisoner on a mittimus, refused to liberate him upon the pardon of the mayor. A writ of habeas corpus was then obtained and the matter brought before the circuit court, County Attorney W. P. Kimball appeared for the commonwealth and City Solicitor Charles W. Miller for the prisoner.

It was contended that under Section 3111 of the Statutes the mayor had the power to pardon any prisoner committed of any offense in the police court of which that court has jurisdiction. The section referred to confers upon the mayor of any city of the second class the power to discharge from custody any prisoner convicted in the police court. It was upon the authority of this statutory provision that Mr. Miller made his plea for the release of the prisoner. Mr. Kimball held that this statute was in violation to Section 77 of the constitution which vests the pardoning power in the governor and cited several authorities in support of the view that this power could not be delegated or vested in any person other than the governor.

This latter view was sustained by the court and the prisoner was remanded to jail.

Mr. Miller was asked the reason for issuing the pardon to Mahone, and said that the matter was brought up not so much for the liberation of Mahone as it was to test the legality of the mayor's pardoning power.

MALARIA

An Invisible Enemy to Health.

Malaria is an invisible atmospheric poison. The air becomes infected with the gases and microbes arising from the marshes and low lands, damp cellars, sewer pipes, badly ventilated houses and decaying vegetable matter, and we unconsciously inhale them into the lungs, when they are taken up by the blood and circulated throughout the system.

Malaria gives no warning of its coming; no immediate effects are seen, and no violent symptoms appear until the unfortunate sufferer is completely at the mercy of this hidden foe. This invisible enemy may be following us night and day, but often the first intimation we have of its presence is a chilly, creepy sensation running over the body, sometimes followed by a slight fever, and an always tired, drowsy and depressed feeling. The blood soon becomes deeply poisoned, thinned and weakened by the teeming millions of microbes and germs, and an irregular, slow circulation is the result. This condition of the blood gives rise to innumerable and serious troubles: torpid liver, enlargement of the spleen, loss of appetite and feeble digestion, a pallid or yellow skin, boils, carbuncles, abscesses, indolent ulcers, and pustular and scabby skin eruptions of various kinds, are common symptoms of malaria. Frequently the health becomes so impaired, and such a lifeless condition ensues that the person loses interest in his surroundings and faith in all human remedies. Malaria, if allowed to remain in the system, lays the foundation for other diseases that very often prove fatal or permanently wreck the health.

LOUISVILLE, KY., March 26th, 1902.

For several years I suffered with Chills and Fever, caused by Malaria in my system, and each summer for several years I would relapse. Finally my physician prescribed S. S. S. In all, I took three bottles, and they entirely cured me, and I have never been troubled since. I am sure no other medicine could have given me so complete and immediate relief, and I cannot speak too highly of S. S. S. My partner in business is now taking S. S. S. for an eruption of the skin and general run down condition of his system, and though he has taken but one bottle, already commences to feel better.

system through the blood, and a remedy that can destroy the germs and microbes and neutralize the bad effects of the poison offers the only hope of a cure, and the only medicine that can accomplish this is S. S. S., which not only purges the blood of all morbid, unhealthy matter, but keeps it pure and healthy. It searches out and destroys every trace of Malarial poison, and keeps the blood in such a vigorous condition that poisonous matters of no kind are allowed to accumulate, but are promptly expelled from the system.

During the spring is an opportune time to begin the fight against this invisible enemy, for the hot, sultry summer days will cause the germs to multiply and still further impoverish the blood and weaken the constitution, and now more than ever the Malaria sufferer needs a good blood purifier and bracing tonic.

A course of S. S. S. at this particular season will relieve you of Malaria and its attendant evils, reinforce and build up the system, purify and strengthen the sluggish blood and quicken the circulation, when the appetite and digestion improve and all the vital powers rapidly recuperate under the invigorating tonic influence of this great vegetable remedy. Its freedom from all minerals makes it the ideal remedy in all Malarial troubles and perfectly adapted to the most delicate constitutions.

If you have any symptoms of Malarial poison, write us about it, and our Physicians will take up your case and advise you without charge. Book on Blood and Skin Diseases, free.

HARD TO KILL

ELECTRICITY ACHIEVED! STUBBORNLY ON CONDEMNED MAN.

Sing Sing, N. Y., May 27—Antonio Triola, who was put to death in the electric chair in Sing Sing prison, was hard to kill, as five shocks were necessary to cause death. State Electrician Davis said it was harder to kill a thin, wiry man like Triola was by the electric current than a stout man, as in the case of a thin man there are not enough tissue to convey the fatal current quickly to a vital part. Mr. Davis also said that Triola had thick, greasy hair, which resisted the current. Triola received the first shock at 8:02 a. m. After four more shocks had been given at brief intervals he was pronounced dead.

Antonio Triola shot and killed Mamie Cerelli, a young Italian girl, who was a theatrical performer in a small Italian theater on the East Side, New York. The girl had refused to marry Triola.

Money to Loan On Real Estate and Collateral

YOUNG WIFEHOOD

Boston, Mass., 152 Shawmut Ave., Oct. 25, 1902.
After I had been married about four months I felt my health generally decline. I seemed to lose the light step and dragged along wearily instead. My appetite failed me and I lost health and strength. I was nervous and had shooting pains through my limbs and stomach while bearing down pains and constant headaches added to my misery. The menstrual flow became more and more profuse and I was unfit to attend to my daily duties. My husband called in three different physicians and I took medicine enough to kill or cure a dozen women, but it all had no effect on me whatever, until I took Wine of Cardui. In a few days I felt a change for the better, my general health improved and at the next time of my periods my flow was more natural and I was in less pain. Gradually I recovered my health and strength and am now in perfect health. I take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui which keeps me well. I am happy to give you this endorsement.

Mrs. Bertha Ricker

Wine of Cardui brought Mrs. Ricker good health. That is why she has so much faith in it that she never is without Wine of Cardui in her house.

The first months following marriage are full of peril for the young wife and a dose of Wine of Cardui every day is a great reinforcement to her strength. Why don't you try for the same health Mrs. Ricker has? It is easy to secure if you take Wine of Cardui according to directions. Wine of Cardui strengthens weak and worn-out women of any age and assists the mother and housewife to bear her exacting duties. It is a great strain to give birth to children and to perform housework, but Wine of Cardui makes women fit for all the duties of womanhood.

It will relieve the pains of irregularity, cures falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, ovarian troubles, and has been known to remove what physicians considered dangerous tumors. Women who use Wine of Cardui do not suffer at the monthly periods. No shock or strain lays them up in bed for days or weeks with nervous prostration. They do not suffer hysterical attacks, because Wine of Cardui gives them strong nerves freed from the irritation of female suffering.

A $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui purchased from your druggist will keep you free from pain.

WHIPPED THE UMPIRE.

AND THIS BASEBALL PLAYER WAS SUSPENDED.

Little Rock, Ark., May 27—President W. M. Kavanaugh, of the Southern league, has suspended for ten days Left Fielder Flannagan, of Montgomery, for his assault on Umpire Keefe Saturday.

This is the first case of the kind this season. In announcing the suspension President Kavanaugh says to managers:

"Do not let your players attempt the punishment for any of the shortcomings or mistakes he may have made. I assure you that if I am convinced that an umpire is incompetent, or dishonest, that I will dispense with his services immediately if I am convinced of the fact, but the punishment in this matter must be left to me. I do not intend that the players shall take this matter in their own hands. If they do I will suspend every player attempting it, even if it takes every player out of the game."

ANOTHER CASE.

COLORED WOMAN REMOVED TO THE PEST HOUSE YESTERDAY.

Helen Mason, colored, of 611 South Ninth street, was yesterday afternoon found to have smallpox and sent to the pest house.

A 6 year old Boke child, on South Sixth street, has also developed a case of the disease, and the house has again been quarantined. A short time ago one child took it and the house was quarantined and when Health Officer Graves yesterday went to raise the quarantine he found another child ill.

SPRING AILMENTS.

There is an aching and tired feeling; the liver, bowels and kidneys become sluggish and inactive, the digestion impaired, with little or no appetite, no ambition for anything, and a feeling that the whole body and mind needs toning up. The trouble is that during winter there has been an accumulation of waste matter in the system. Herbine will remove it, secure to the secretions a right exit, and by its tonic effect fully restore the wasted tissues and give strength in place of weakness. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

REVOLVER FACTORY.

SMITH & WESSON CLOSE DOWN BECAUSE OF LABOR TROUBLES.

Springfield, Mass., May 27—The firm of Smith & Wesson, revolver makers, closed their factory this evening for an indefinite period. This step is taken, it is believed, because of labor troubles, the men having signified their intention of forming a union despite the opposition of the firm.

The following notice was posted today:

"This factory will be closed tonight, and remain closed until further notice for purposes of reorganization."

Last week a number of employees were asked regarding their connection with the movement to form a union, and as a result eleven were discharged. The firm threatened at that time to shut down the works, but the employees did not desert from their purpose to become union members.

Joseph H. Wesson this afternoon said that the factory would be opened again as soon as sufficient number of men, to make it an object to start the engine, signified their intention of returning.

SMALL VERDICT.

SENSATIONAL CASE AT HENDERSON SETTLED.

Henderson, May 27—In the famous damage suit for slander in which Prof. J. Brown Larue, president of an Owensboro college, sued E. T. Roberts, a leading business man and church man of this city, for $20,000, the jury today returned a verdict for Larue for $450. In his petition Larue alleged that Roberts had called him a hypocrite, Pharisee, scoundrel, etc., in letters, and had mailed these letters to various people.

In the trial of the case Roberts affirmed and attempted to justify by introducing evidence that Larue subscribed a certain amount to the Christian church and afterwards denied the action.

An attempt on the part of Roberts to collect the amount for the church was the cause of the suit.

LOTUS SIMS AND STACKER LEE BEGIN THEIR CONTEST.

The Lotus Sims, which was here recently en route to Nashville with wheat from St. Louis, and the Stacker Lee, of the Lee line are engaged in a spirited contest between St. Louis and Memphis for business, beginning Monday. They both reached Cairo yesterday about the same time, the Sims seeming to have the better of the business. There were in the cargo, however, four thousand sacks of corn, purchased by the owner of the boat. It is not known how long the Sims will be able to hold out against the Lee line.

CURES WHEN DOCTORS FAIL.

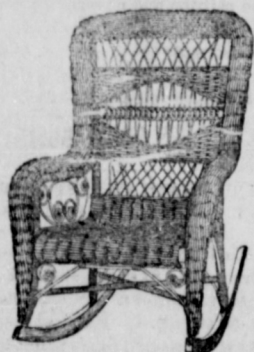

Mrs. Frank Chason, Patterson, La., writes June 8, 1904: "I had malaria fever in very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return. I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then bought two bottles, which completely cured me. THE WEATHER.

Showers and cooler tonight and Thursday.

High winds in Nebraska seem to have blown away most everything except a few of Mr. W. J. Bryan's heavy editorials.

Senator Gorman imparted the startling information to reporters when he arrived in London yesterday that the silver issue was settled in this country. This indicates that some of the Democrats are not so dense as is commonly supposed.

The lynx-eyed secret service men discovered a man who had arranged to kill President Roosevelt—they think.
All the evidence they have thus far is that he talked too much. Men who do those kind of things usually never talk about it, but this man of course
may be different.

What's the matter with the street improvement ordinances that have been hanging fire for some time in the boards? Owing to the time and trouble incident to getting ready for work
there is no time to lose and the ordinances should be passed so preparations
may be made to start work.

Railroads help a town a great deal.
Since Golconda, Ill., secured a line
she has blossomed into quite an important place, and after years of tranquil rural life is now fully awake and has telephone, and telegraph, and preparations are being made to install an electric light plant, ice factory and box factory.

A trait of the late President McKinley that endeared him to all was his unassuming generosity. It has just been learned that the person who gave a check for $5,000 for the relief of starving reconcentrados in 1897, on condition that his name not be revealed, was none other than President McKinley.

Judging from the reports of yesterday's Democratic primary in Louisville Chairman Young is still on top.
The opposition held an alleged primary, but the number of votes polled is comparatively so small that it rendered the affair a farce. Fraud was perpetrated in full view of everybody, and according to dispatches no effort was made to conceal it. The result will be that the state Democratic executive committee which consists principally of Chairman Young, will again run over the other fellows at the proper time, just as it has been doing.

Those who know Judge J. E. Robbins, of Mayfield, who has just been appointed to preside in the Powers case, believe that he will endeavor to see that the defendant gets a fair trial, something the latter has not had yet. Prejudice has always played a more important part in securing a verdict in the cases than testimony, and it has been due largely to the judge presiding, that incompetent evidence was permitted in order to arouse the prejudice of the jurors, most, if not all of whom were rabid Democrats. The trials have been used to manufacture sentiment in favor of Democratic tickets and to arouse prejudice against the Republican tickets, long enough. It is hoped that Judge Robbins will make
as good a record in the case as is expected of him.

The members of a board of education cannot afford to have it charged that politics or prejudice are permitted to influence them in any of their actions. They are elected to represent the people and to do what is best for the educational interests of the city.
This they cannot do if they allow spite-work to figure in their official acts. To simply say that teachers who have never been tried, will give better satisfaction than teachers who have for years given creditable and satisfactory service in our schools is not sufficient for the people. There should be a more plausible reason for discharging teachers. It is regretted that such matters come up in a school board,
for it is one of the most important bodies in a city, having as its duty the regulation of the educational interests of a city. But when they do the facts should be exposed, and if members have overstepped the bounds they should be made to take the consequences at the bar of public opinion.

Paducah has a chance to get another important railroad, and the prospects
for our securing it are considered good.
The road, as is customary, wants a bonus. It may be possible to raise or it may not. That is something impossible to foretell. But the benefits that are to be derived from a railroad outlet such as contemplated, both to the city and to the railroad, cannot be denied, and every effort should be made to bring the road here. Citizens should unite in an effort to get it, and not act on the presumption that if the railroad wants to come it will come, inducements or no inducements. There are often many places that would suit
a railroad, one about as well as another,
and some of which will offer inducements which often deprive a less hustling, enterprising city of an industry that would be of inestimable benefit to it. There is never any way to predict results in such cases, and Paducah should do every thing right and reasonable to get the new road, at the same time remembering the rights
and interests of the people.

BOOKER'S FACTORY.

NEGRO EDUCATOR TO OPERATE
ONE, IT IS SAID.

Richmond, Va., May 27—Booker
Washington's ideas for the industrial development of the negro in the south are to take practical shape here. The initial step is to be the opening of a large tobacco factory to be controlled, directed and operated by negroes. Other enterprises, including machine shops and a large commission and wholesale house are to follow. The tobacco factory will be called the "Negroes' Friend," and the labor to be employed will be the most skilled to be found among the negro race. Smoking and chewing tobacco, snuff, cigars, cheroots and cigars will be made.
A delegation of colored men have been in the city for the past few days prospecting and looking for a suitable site for the factory. An offer has been made to a large manufacturer here
for his plant as it stands with all the equipments. No decision has been reached.

The meeting is the outcome of a movement here last year of the Negroes' Business League. The local league is to be in the immediate control of the proposed enterprise, and students from Tuskegee institute will be put in charge. Washington is backed in his scheme by Andrew Carnegie,
who recently donated $600,000 to Tuskegee institute.

FICIAL NOTICE FROM

Captain Mike Williams of the Marine Ways Co. stated today at noon
that he had received no official notification of the intended settlement of notified the Commercial club here that they will settle here on the same basis as they did in Jeffersonville, but he has not been notified yet.

Franklin, Ky., May 27—Jerry Mc-Kinnie, a well to do negro, fired the contents of a shotgun into his brain

no explanation of his conduct. He left a widow and four children. He had two brothers, who committed suicide
a few years ago.

New Orleans today at noon.

NEW SCHOOLS

Building Committee Met and Outlined Plans.

A $40,000 Bond Issue to be Asked by Trustees.

The committee appointed by the school board to formulate plans for school improvements met last night and outlined their plans. One member stated this morning in regard to the meeting:

"We have formulated all plans for improvements and will ask for a $40,- 000 bond issue, ten year bonds. We intend to make improvements by addition of steam heat and also the addition of eight rooms to the Jefferson school, at Eighth and Harrison, making this a sixteen room school, large enough to accommodate that entire district. We will also build a new eight room school in Mechanicsburg.
This school will be rather large for this district now, but will be filled within a year. This part of the city is growing rapidly and the present school is not one-third large enough to accommodate the pupils."

POLICE DRILLED

IN ANTICIPATION OF TROUBLE WITH STRIKERS.

Kansas City, May 27—The police department of Kansas City, acting under special instructions from Gov.
Dockery and the police commissioners, have made unusual preparations to cope with any emergency that may arise in the event of a strike of freight handlers, teamsters or other employes.
Probably the most suggestive feature of these arrangements are the new Krag-Jorgensen rifles supplied to the department, and the bundles of bandages and lint piled in the surgeons'
rooms.

A large reserve force of police is held at police headquarters night and day, and the entire force is being drilled in the manual of arms. The freight handlers of Kansas City are awaiting word from Chicago whether or not to strike, and it is expected that the order will be to strike.

The freight house of the Union Pacific and the Great Western railroads are not interested in the strike. At these two houses the freight is all handled by negroes, and they are satisfied with their work and pay and have made no demands. The other railroads have observed this, and the plan is, if the strike comes, to let the old workmen go and to fill their places
with negroes.

The Frisco railroad brought a carload of negroes to the city this afternoon from the South. The negroes were guarded by armed white men.

WATCHFUL OFFICERS

CRANK WHO TALKS TOO MUCH
ARRESTED.

Walla Walla, Wash., May 27—Joseph Becker, a Swiss butcher, is in the city jail here on suspicion of having intended to kill President Roosevelt yesterday. The episode was kept quiet until after the president's departure.

Becker is accused of having remarked in Pendleton, Oregon, last week
that he had one bullet for President Roosevelt and another for Emperor William of Germany. He left for Walla Walla with a Winchester, followed by his Pendleton partner, Pat Kine, and he was notified the police. Becker was located working in a butcher shop. He was arrested, and on being sweated disclosed the location of his rifle, which was stowed
away in a farmer's barn along the line of march. Becker is a Swiss. The police here think that a tragedy was narrowly averted.

MAJOR BUCK DUE

HE WILL INSPECT WHEELER
GUARDS TONIGHT.

Major Buck, who is coming here
this afternoon to inspect the Wheeler Guards, will arrive at 3:45 and will be met by a squad of the guards at the depot. He will make the regular inspection at the armory on Jefferson street at 8 o'clock and Captain Caldwell has issued strict orders for all members to be on hand. This is the second inspection within two months and the boys are being drilled regularly in order to meet any others that might be ordered. Major Buck goes to Murray next.

SOME DISPLEASED

OWENSBORO MINISTERS CON-DEMN RECENT CONCLAVE
THERE.

Owensboro, May 27—Some of the Owensboro ministers Sunday preached on the results of the recent Knights Templar convocation held in this city.
The Rev. R. H. Crossfield, at the Christian church, and the Rev. L. H.
Hudson, at the First Presbyterian, took occasion to condemn the meeting in strong terms. They said it had been a detriment to the city morally. They said there was entirely too much drinking, dancing and keeping of late hours.

The Rev. P. T. Hale, at the Third Baptist church, said there was entirely too much drinking of intoxicants
among the men and women, too much dancing and carousing. He said all in all the meeting of the Knights Templar had been a damage to Owensboro. He said it had set an example for license whose blighting influence would long be seen in the corruption and dissipation of the young.
He feared that the city was retrograding religiously.

The Rev. Dr. G. L. Morrill of Minneapolis, Minn., who formerly was pastor of the First Baptist church here and who attended the convocation, being a member of Owensboro commandery preached at Temple theater
Sunday night. Dr. Morrill took occasion to compliment the convocation and said that Owensboro should long be proud of entertaining such an upright and moral set of men as those Knights who attended the convocation. He said the convocation was beneficial and that he never saw a more orderly crowd of men and women. In other words he said they were a fair sample of Kentucky's best men and women.

DEAD EASY.

SETTLEMENT IN BANKRUPTCY
MADE IN SHORT ORDER.

One of the easiest settlements made in bankruptcy since the present law
went into effect was made in the case
of William A. Hartley of Olive, Ky., who filed his petition in bankruptcy
several weeks ago.

He was at the time in poor health and growing worse. His assets amounted to several thousand dollars and while sick in bed he called his creditors together and proposed to settle with them on 75 cents on the dollar, which was accepted. This was done just prior to the confirmation of the petition and now all the trustee in bankruptcy in this case has to do is to distribute the money at the per cent
agreed on before Hartley's death, which occurred shortly after.

RETIRE FROM BUSINESS.

H. H. GRATS, OLDEST EDITOR IN THE STATE, SELLS HIS PAPER.

Lexington, Ky., May 27—H. H.
Gratz, aged 87 years, and for fifteen years the editor of the Kentucky Gazette, the oldest weekly newspaper in the state, has sold his publication to
Mr. Edwin Kinkadee, of this city. Mr.
Gratz is the oldest editor in point of service in the state and retires from business a wealthy man. He has two sons living in St. Louis who are rated as millionaires. Mr. Kinkadee, the new owner, is a brother of Judge George B. Kinkadee, of this city, and a man well qualified to become an editor.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of consumption and throat and lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German syrup.
There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light
colds perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the night and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cents size has just been introduced this year.
Regular size 75 cents. At all druggists.

DESERTER SHOT.

San Francisco, May 27—Charles A.
Hurd, a military prisoner serving a sentence for desertion from the coast
artillery, was shot and killed by Private Charles M. Chew, while attempting to escape from the guards at Fort Mason. Hurd's birthplace is given in the army record as Hot Springs, Ark.

MISTAKE IN ORDERS

Gaused a Head-End Smash-up
at Dyersburg.

Freight Engines Badly Damaged But
No One Was Hurt.

There was a serious head end collision at Dyersburg, Tenn., on the I. C.
road last night about 7:30 o'clock, but fortunately no one was injured in the accident. The trains were Nos. 155, Engine Tabcoett, and No. 182, Engineer Creamens, both of the city.
The former was en route south and the latter north and met at the depot at Dyersburg. They were not going very fast but the engines were badly smashed up. The crews jumped and saved themselves from injury. Three cars were derailed, one tearing through the depot and smashing the building badly on one side.

The local wrecker was sent out about 8 o'clock and succeeded in clearing the line by 11 o'clock. Passenger train No. 104 was delayed some little time, getting into Paducah nearly three hours late.

It is not known what caused the accident, but is reported one of the engineers overlooked his orders.

PLENTY OF TIME.

ATTORNEY TAYLOR WILL CON-TEST THE NOMINATION
HOWEVER.

Attorney L. K. Taylor, who has announced that he will contest Attorney Lovett's nomination as commonwealth
attorney, will not file papers for several days. In regard to the matter he stated to a reporter this morning:
"My friends have urged me to contest
the nomination and I have decided to do so. It will require some time to draw up my papers and as I have not the privilege of an amendment after I have filed them great care has to be exercised in drawing them up. I will first have to file notice with Mr. Lovett and the committee that I will contest, and then file my papers, the proof, etc. Every precinct where I have evidence of any crookedness will have to be cited and the committee will have to visit that precinct and hold a regular trial to hear the evidence. In one precinct I got little over half the votes on the returns that I feel sure and can prove I got by actual votes. I tried hard to secure a count of the votes without a contest, which means much time and work, and this is my last resort."

Attorney Taylor may not file his papers for three weeks. He has thirty days after the issuing of the certificate, in which to act.

JEWS DISFRANCHISED.

ORTHODOX JEWS IN CHICAGO
PRECLUDED FROM SUFF-RAGE.

Chicago, May 27—From 5,000 to 10,000 Jewish voters, if they adhere strictly to their religious precepts, will be disfranchised at the judicial election to be held here on Monday owing to the fact that Monday is the first day of Pentecost, on which no orthodox Jew will do even the amount of work required to mark his ballot.
The law requires that every voter shall mark his own ballot and there is said to be no way out of the dilemma.
Dr. Emil G. Hirsch, expressing his opinion on the situation, said:
"On that day the strict Jew will not work and consequently will not write."

SUMMER COLDS

Produce Chronic Catarrh.

Madame Isabella Ellen Bayes.

Madame Isabella Ellen Bayes, Life
Governor Grand Lodge of Free Masons
of England, in a letter from Hotel Saratoga, Chicago, Ill., says:

"This summer while traveling I contracted a most persistent and annoying cold. My head ached, my eyes and nose seemed constantly running,
my lungs were sore and I lost my appetite, health and good spirits. Doctors prescribed for me all manner of pills and powders, but all to no purpose."

"I advised with a druggist and he spoke so highly of a medicine called Peruna, that he induced me to try my first bottle of patent medicine. However, it proved such a help to me that I soon purchased another bottle and kept on until I was entirely well."—
Madame Isabella Ellen Bayes.

Summer colds require prompt treatment. They are always grave, and sometimes dangerous. The promptness and surety with which Peruna acts in these cases has saved many lives. A large dose of Peruna should be taken at the first appearance of a cold in summer, followed by small and often repeated doses. There is no other remedy that medical science can furnish, so reliable and quick in its action as Peruna.
Address The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio, for a free book entitled "Summer Catarrh," which treats of the catarrhal diseases peculiar to summer.

CROP REPORT.

NEED OF RAIN IS SHOWED BY
THE LAST REPORT.

The weekly crop bulletin issued by the weather bureau is out today and is as follows:

Very high temperature prevailed
during the week. In the western portion of the state, and in some localities
in the central section, and in a few of the extreme northern counties, there was a good rainfall, but in other portions of the state it was entirely too dry or the light showers did not give sufficient moisture to be of any benefit to growing crops.

Wheat has improved slightly, but will be a short crop. It has headed low and heads are short; in some localities it is injured by rust.

Corn is doing well in the western section, but in the central and eastern sections it is not coming up well, and planting has been delayed by the drouth.

In the western section tobacco
plants are plentiful and in good condition—nearly half the crop has been set; but in the central and eastern sections very little has been set and the plants are suffering to some extent
from the drouth.

Rye is generally reported to be in good condition, but oats are not promising.

Grass is improving rapidly in the west, but is suffering from lack of rain in the east and central counties.
Potatoes and gardens are late, but doing fairly well.

Strawberries are abundant and blackberries are promising. There is some complaint of apples dropping,
but the present outlook is for a fairly good crop. Cherries are ripening and are of good quality.

Theatrical Notes.

There was a larger crowd out last night to witness "The Mikado," by the Boston Ideal Opera company, than on Monday night. The performance was liberally applauded, and the soloists received many encores. This is the last night of "The Mikado," and tomorrow night "The Chimes of Normandy" will be sung. The opera has made a great hit and the crowds promise to grow larger. There will be a 10 cent matinee Saturday afternoon and a special performance Sunday night.

Neither Living Nor Dead.

A. J. Baldwin of the law firm of Dill & Baldwin told the teachers in the New York Normal School at their dinner at the St. Denis the other evening, a story about an old Irishman in Manhattan who was called upon by a census enumerator and asked questions about almost everything she ever knew, and others about many things she had never taken the time and trouble to learn. Among other things, said Mr. Baldwin, the enumerator asked:
"Have you any children, madam?"
"Yes, sir," she replied. "I have four of them—two living, two dead, and one tchin' school in Brooklyn."

LONG TIME

TO GET OVER HURT OF COFFEE.

It sometimes takes a long period to get over the effects of coffee drinking. A little woman in Wadesboro, N. C., says "I was a coffee drinker and a sufferer from dyspepsia, stomach trouble, nervousness and the train of disorders that follow.

"On the advice of an eminent physician I cut off my allowance to one cup a day at breakfast. That helped me a little but I gradually got worse, and finally became ill, badly run down, and so 'depressed in mind that I did not care how the scales turned.

"At this time I was induced to leave off coffee altogether and take Postum Food-Coffee. That was in September. I had also a dish of Grape Nuts for breakfast. I practically lived on Postum Food-Coffee and Grape Nuts for some time. In November I had made considerable improvement and knew that at last I was on the road to health. At Christmas time I felt well enough to go through that glorious feast with comfort and happiness. In January I was much improved over the previous month, and had gained very considerable in flesh, how many pounds I don't know. My strength and color were much improved. My appetite and digestion in every way good. I ate what I pleased and with much enjoyment.

"About that time a clergyman friend visited us and on Sunday morning when he was going to preach I had a strong cup of coffee made for him because he was in a run down nervous condition and said that he needed the stimulant. Well that was a sad day for me. I thought I was well enough to drink a cup of coffee with him and did so. It was strong but did not taste right. I was interested in his conversation and found that I was adding, from time to time, more cream and sugar for some way I realized the beverage did not taste as it should, then I remembered it was coffee and not Postum. I like Postum better than I do coffee.

"That day the old symptoms of stomach trouble came on and while it seems almost impossible, it is nevertheless true, that I never got back again to my state of health for about two months. The coffee acted as an active poison that went all through my system. However, I have recovered by leaving it off entirely and using Postum and now that I am well, happy and contented you could not get me to take a cup of coffee, no not for a king's ransom. I believe I am one of the kind that know when I have had enough." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

IN POLICE COURT.

A PETTY LARCENY CASE PARTIALLY HEARD—FEW OTHER CASES.

Lewis Wright, age 18, who claims to have come from Metropolis here and who claims Evansville as his home, was arraigned before Judge Sanders this morning on the charge of stealing a coat, the property of Charles Lindsey, an employe of Glauber's livery stable.

The Wright boy and his brother were seen sitting in the livery stable by another employe of the stable and soon after their departure Lindsey came in and missed his coat which had been hung in the office. The boys were described and soon arrested. They told several different tales, one being that they had bought the coat from a negro somewhere on Washington street. The case seemed to rest on this particular point and as the boys claimed they did not know the streets, were sent out with officers to locate the house where they had bought the coat. They were unable to find it and were locked up for further proof.

The breach of the peace case against Ella Humphrey, Cora Cook and Anna King, colored, was left open. They thought a negro had stolen some money from them and went out in search of her raising a general disturbance, it is claimed.

The case against James Sears for presenting a pistol at Fred Crume was this morning continued.

From Excessive Men-

Dr. Miles' Nervine Gave Back My Health.

It is not always severe manual labor that breaks down the health. Mental strain, worry, anxiety, the cares of business or the home, have an equally strong tendency towards undermining the nervous system, upon whose vitality the health of the body depends. When you find yourself unduly fretful, anxious, easily excitable; when your sleep is troubled and you can get no rest; if you have frequent headache, are losing your appetite and are getting thin, you should begin at once a thorough course of treatment with Dr. Miles' Nervine. There is no nerve tonic so good, so sure, so safe. It speedily restores the weakened nerves to healthy action, and builds strength and tissue.

"I was raised on a farm at hard labor, and when I left the farm and began preaching, the change of occupation and excessive study shattered my nerves and impaired my memory. I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and after using two bottles I could see a decided improvement, and I continued until I had used nine bottles, when I considered myself completely cured. That was seven years ago so that I know my cure is permanent. My health has been excellent ever since. I am glad to add my testimony to the merits of this wonderful restorative and trust that other sufferers may receive the same benefit from its use that I have."—REV. W. L. SINGLETON, Duluth, Ga.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 9.2 feet on the gauge, a rise of 0.1 in last 24 hours. Wind southwest, a high wind. Weather clear and warmer. Temperature 78.

Pell, Observer.

The Memphis is due tonight to St. Louis.

The Rees Lee is due to Memphis Tuesday.

The Savannah is due to Tennessee river tomorrow.

The Dick Fowler left on time this morning for Cairo.

The Avalon is due Friday to Memphis from Cincinnati.

The Pearce arrived and departed on time today for Golconda.

The City of St. Joe is still laying up here waiting for orders.

The Margaret will arrive from Tennessee river today with 45,000 ties.

The Clyde will leave tonight for Pittsburgh Landing with an excursion to the Shiloh battlefield.

The Charleston will leave for Tennessee river today. She is running regularly in that trade at present.

The Butterfield is due from Cumberland today and will leave immediately after arrival for Nashville. She missed her short trip this week.

Capt. John Young of the Osborne and Capt. Doug Jones of the I. N. Hook are in Cairo. Capt. Jones is waiting for a boat he will take up the Wabash river.

The Coca Belle has been repaired on the docks and let into the river, and the Gazelle, Supt. Taylor thinks, will be completed tomorrow. Supt. Taylor will then close down the docks indefinitely and leave on a fishing trip.

J. Frank Tilley, secretary of the Pittsburgh coal exchange, has been appointed Louisville representative of the Ohio River Improvement association. Mr. Tilley will look after the membership and business of the association in Pittsburgh.

The new towboat Enterprise, it is said, is not doing as good work as the old boat did by considerable. The new boat is twelve feet longer and four feet wider. The old Enterprise, in command of Capt. Jacob Menges, was considered about the best boat of her size that left Pittsburgh.

An important admiralty experiment of storing coal under water was begun at Portsmouth recently. All the naval stations report that stores of coal when exposed to the atmosphere deteriorate. Some twenty tons of Welsh coal have now been submerged, inclosed in wooden cases, and will be raised a year hence.

The coal men at Pittsburgh are getting their coal tows in readiness for a rise. They do not intend to be caught by a quick rise, which so often happens on the local rivers. The present dry spell has already lasted several weeks, and quite a lot of rain will be necessary to make a coal stage. The ground is dry and will absorb great quantities of water when rain does come, which would ordinarily serve to swell the river. Rivermen believe that a good rise will come soon and remain for several weeks.

A steamer has recently been built in England which is a marvel of ingenuity, is the first single-decked vessel of her capacity, and shows what can be done by shipbuilders when special work is required. She can carry 10,800 tons on a draft of twenty-two feet eight inches, and will steam ten and one-half knots an hour. She has fourteen masts, twelve hatches, twenty-four derricks, twelve double-ended winches, enabling her to discharge the whole of her 10,800 tons in thirty hours. Her engines are placed aft, so that she may coal while discharging.

A special meeting of the board of supervising inspectors of the steamboat inspection service has been called to meet in the office of Supervising Inspector General Uhler in the treasury department on June 3 for the purpose of making a general revision of the rules and regulations of the inspection service and of formulating recommendations for amendments to the existing laws so as to make them correspond with present requirements. Builders of steam vessels and marine boilers will be invited to send in suggestions or to meet with the board and offer suggestions. All suggestions coming from them or from any other persons in regard to amendments of any of the existing rules and regulations will be welcomed and will be given consideration.

Mr. C. R. Knowles of the I. O. is in the city today.

LEGAL FORMALITIES

NORTON WILL PROBATED, WITH EXCEPTION RELATING TO ORPHANS' HOME.

The will of the late Captain W. F. Norton, Jr., goes to probate as of date of last Friday, save as to the codicil added April 2, 1903, at Coronado beach, Cal., where Captain Norton died.

It is necessary as a legal formality that proof be had of this codicil, but there is no reason why there can not be an administering upon the original will and the first codicil, which do not conflict with the later provision. That last codicil, relating to the bequest to the Baptist Orphans' home, can be established by depositions, but understood that it is one of the witnesses will come in person, and the deposition of the other will be furnished. No question is raised, and merely legal formalities are to be observed.

FOR THOSE WHO

LIVE ON FARMS.

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommend it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns." Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns and bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency. 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.'s

Butler Was Up to Date.

One afternoon last week Comte Robert de Montesquieu called upon a lady living on upper Fifth avenue, and was received at the door by a French butler, who took his hat and coat, but did not ask his name. To the surprise of Comte Robert, the butler threw open the door of the drawing-room, and in his most impressive manner announced "Monsieur le Comte Robert de Montesquieu." This rather surprised the Comte, as he had not given his name or his card to the butler. When he returned to the hall, on his way out, he asked the butler how he knew him. "Monsieur," said the man, with much dignity, "I read the papers."—New York Mail and Express.

GRAUSTARK

... By ...
GEORGE BARR MCCUTCHEON
Copyright, 1901, by Herbert S. Stone

"Not in the least," he gasped, the breath knocked out of his body. Just the same he was very much alarmed. It was as dark as pitch outside and in, and he could not help wondering how near the edge of the mountain side they were running. A false move of the flying horses, and they might go rolling to the bottom of the ravine, hundreds of feet below. Still he must not let her see his apprehension. "This fellow is considered the best driver in the mountains," he prevailed.

"Oh, then we need feel no alarm," she said, reassured.

There was such a roaring and clattering that conversation became almost impossible. When either spoke, it was with the mouth close to the ear of the other. At such times Grenfall could feel her breath on his cheek. Her sweet voice went tingling to his toes with every word she uttered. He was in a daze, out of which sung the mad wish that he might clasp her in his arms, kiss her and then go tumbling down the mountain. She trembled in the next fierce lurches, but gave forth no complaint. He knew that she was in terror, but too brave to murmur.

Unable to resist, he released the strap to which he had clung so grimly and placed his strong, firm hand encouragingly over the little one that gripped his arm with the clutch of death. It was very dark and very lonely too.

"Oh!" she cried as his hand clasped hers. "You must hold to the strap."

"It is broken!" he lied gladly. "There is no danger. See, my hand does not tremble, does it? Be calm! It cannot be much farther."

"Will it not be dreadful if the conductor refuses to stop?" she cried, her hand resting calmly beneath its protector. He detected a tone of security in her voice.

"But he will stop. Your uncle will see to that even if the operator fails."

"My uncle will kill him if he does not stop or come back for me," she said complacently.

"I was not wrong," thought Grenfall. "He looks like a duelist. Who the devil are they, anyhow?" Then aloud: "At this rate we'd be able to beat the train to Washington in a straightaway race. Isn't it a delightfully wild ride?"

"I have acquired a great deal of knowledge in America, but this is the first time I have heard your definition of delight. I agree that it is wild."

For some moments there was silence in the noisy conveyance. Outside, the crack of the driver's whip, his hoarse cries and the nerve destroying crash of the wheels produced impressions of a mighty storm rather than of peace and pleasure.

"I am curious to know where you obtained the coin you lost in the car yesterday," she said at last, as if relieving her mind of a question that had been long subdued.

"The one you so kindly found for me?" he asked procrastinatingly.

"Yes. They are certainly rare in this country."

"I never saw a coin like it until after I had seen you," he confessed. He felt her arm press his a little tighter, and there was a quick movement of her head which told him, dark as it was, that she was trying to see his face and that her blue eyes were wide with something more than terror.

"I do not understand," she exclaimed.

"I obtained the coin from a sleeping-car porter, who said some one gave it

"Do you think it dangerous?" to him and told him to have a 'high time' with it," he explained in her ear. "He evidently did not care for the 'high time,'" she said after a moment. He would have given a fortune for one glimpse of her face at that instant.

"I think he said it would be necessary to go to Europe in order to follow the injunction of the donor. As I am more likely to go to Europe than he, I relieved him of the necessity and bought his right to a 'high time.'"

There was a long pause, during which she attempted to withdraw herself from his side, her little fingers struggling timidly beneath the big ones.

"Are you a collector of coins?" she asked at length, a perceptible coldness in her voice.

"No. I am considered a dispenser of coins. Still, I rather like the idea of possessing this queer bit of money as a pocket piece. I intend to keep it forever and let it descend as an heirloom to the generations that follow me," he said laughingly. "Why are you so curious about it?"

"Because it comes from the city and country in which I live," she responded. "If you were in a land far from your own, would you not be interested in anything—even a coin—that reminded you of home?"

"Especially if I had not seen one of its kind since leaving home," he replied insinuatingly.

"Oh, but I have seen many like it. In my purse there are several at this minute."

"Isn't it strange that this particular coin should have reminded you of home?"

"You have no right to question me, sir," she said coldly, drawing away, only to be lured back again. In spite of herself she laughed audibly.

"I beg your pardon," he said tantalizingly.

"When did he give it to you?"

"Who?"

"The porter, sir."

"You have no right to question me," he said.

"Oh!" she gasped. "I did not mean to be inquisitive."

"But I grant the right. He gave it me inside of two hours after I first entered the car."

"At Denver?"

"How do you know I got on at Denver?"

"Why you passed me in the aisle with your luggage. Don't you remember?"

Did he remember! His heart almost turned over with the joy of knowing that she had really noticed and remembered him. Involuntarily his glad fingers closed down upon the gloved hand that lay beneath them.

"I believe I do remember, now that you speak of it," he said in a stifled voice. "You were standing at a window."

"Yes, and I saw you kissing those ladies goodby too. Was one of them your wife, or were they all your sisters? I have wondered."

"They—they were—cousins," he informed her confusedly, recalling an incident that had been forgotten. He had kissed Mary Lyons and Edna Burroughs, but their brothers were present.

"A foolish habit, isn't it?"

"I do not know. I have no grown cousins," she replied demurely. "You Americans have such funny customs, though. Where I live no gentleman would think of pressing a lady's hand until it pained her. Is it necessary?"

In the question there was a quiet dignity, half submerged in scorn, so pointed, so unmistakable, that he flushed, turned cold with mortification and hastily removed the amorous fingers.

"I crave your pardon. It is such a strain to hold myself and you against the rolling of this wagon that I unconsciously gripped your hand harder than I knew. You—you will not misunderstand my motive?" he begged, fearful lest he had offended her by his rudeness.

"I could not misunderstand something that does not exist," she said simply, proudly.

"By Jove, she's beyond comparison!" he thought.

"You have explained, and I am sorry I spoke as I did. I shall not again forget how much I owe you."

"Your indebtedness, if there be one, does not deprive you of the liberty to speak to me as you will. You could not say anything unjust without asking my forgiveness, and when you do that you more than pay the debt. It is worth a great deal to me to hear you say that you owe something to me, for I am only too glad to be your creditor. If there is a debt, you shall never pay it. It is too pleasant an account to be settled with 'you're welcome.' If you insist that you owe much to me, I shall refuse to cancel the debt and allow it to draw interest forever."

"What a financier!" she cried. "That jest was worthy of a courtier's deepest flattery. Let me say that I am proud to owe my gratitude to you. You will not permit it to grow less."

"That was either irony or the prettiest speech a woman ever uttered," he said warmly. "I also am curious about something. You were reading over my shoulder in the observation car?"

"I was not!" she exclaimed indignantly. "How did you know that?" she inconsistently went on.

"You forgot the mirror in the opposite side of the car."

"Acht! Now I am offended!"

"With a poor old mirror? For shame! Yet, in the name of our American glass industry, I ask your forgiveness. It shall not happen again. You will admit that you were trying to read over my shoulder. Thanks for that immutable nod. Well, I am curious to know what you were so eager to read."

"Since you presume to believe the mirror instead of me, I will tell you. There was a dispatch on the first page that interested me deeply."

"I believe I thought as much at the time. Oh, confound this road!" For half a mile or more the road had been fairly level, but, as the ejaculation indicated, a rough place had been reached.

ed. He was flung back in the corner violently, his head coming in contact with a sharp projection of some kind. The pain was almost unbearable, but it was caused by the fact that she had involuntarily thrown her arm across his chest, her hand grasping his shoulder spasmodically.

"Oh, we shall be killed!" she half shrieked. "Can you not stop him? This is madness—madness!"

"Pray be calm! I was to blame, for I had become careless. He is earning his money; that's all. It was not stipulated in the contract that he was to consider the comfort of his passengers." Grenfall could feel himself turn pale as something warm began to trickle down his neck. "Now, tell me which dispatch it was. I read all of them."

"You did? Of what interest could they have been?"

"Curiosity does not recognize reason."

"You read every one of them?"

"Assuredly."

"Then I shall grant you the right to guess which interested me the most. You Americans delight in puzzles. I am told."

"Now, that is unfair."

"So it is. Did you read the dispatch from Constantinople?" Her arm fell to her side suddenly as if she had just realized its position.

"The one that told of the French ambassador's visit to the sultan?"

"Concerning the small matter of a loan of some millions—yes. Well, that was of interest to me inasmuch as the loan, if made, will affect my country."

"Will you tell me what country you are from?"

"I am from Graustark."

"Yes; but I don't remember where that is."

"Is it possible that your American schools do not teach geography? Ours tell us where the United States is located."

"I confess ignorance."

"Then I shall insist that you study a map. Graustark is small, but I am as proud of it as you are of this great broad country that reaches from ocean to ocean. I can scarcely wait until I again see our dear crags and valleys, our rivers and ever blue skies, our plains and our towns. I wonder if you worship your country as I love mine."

"From the tenor of your remarks I judge that you have been away from home for a long time," he volunteered.

"We have seen something of Asia, Australia, Mexico and the United States since we left Edelweiss six months ago. Now we are going home—home!" She uttered the word so lovingly, so longingly, so tenderly, that he envied the homeland.

There was a long break in the conversation, both evidently wrapped in thought which could not be disturbed by the whirl of the coach. He was wondering how he could give her up, now that she had been tossed into his keeping so strangely. She was asking herself over and over again how so thrilling an adventure would end.

They were sore and fatigued with the strain on nerve and flesh. It was an experience never to be forgotten, this romantic race over the wild mountain road, the result still in doubt. Ten minutes ago—strangers; now—friends at least, neither knowing the other.

"Surely we must be almost at the end of this awful ride," she moaned, yielding completely to the long suppressed alarm. "Every bone in my body aches. What shall we do if they have not held the train?"

"Send for an undertaker," he replied grimly, seeing policy in jest. They were now ascending an incline, bumping over potholes, hurtling through treacherous ruts and water washed holes, rolling, swinging, jerking, crashing. "You have been brave all along. Don't give up now. It is almost over. You'll soon be with your friends."

"How can I thank you?" she cried, gripping his arm once more. Again his hand dropped upon hers and closed gently.

"I wish that I could do a thousand times as much for you," he said thrillingly, her disheveled hair touching his face, so close were his lips. "Ah, the lights of the town!" he cried an instant later. "Look!"

He held her so that she could peer through the rattling glass window. Close at hand, higher up the steep, many lights were twinkling against the blackness.

Almost before they realized how near they were to the lights the horses began to slacken their speed, a moment later coming to a standstill. The awful ride was over.

"The train, the train!" she cried in ecstasy. "Here, on the other side! Thank heaven!"

He could not speak for the joyful pride that distended his heart almost to bursting. The coach door flew open, and Light Horse Jerry yelled:

"Here y'are! I made her!"

"I should say you did!" exclaimed Grenfall, climbing out and drawing her after him gently. "Here's your ten."

CHAPTER III.
MISS GUGGENLOCKER.

HE laughed, looking down into her serious, upturned face. She broke away from him and threw herself into the arms of tall, excited Uncle Caspar. The conductor, several trainmen and a few eager passengers came up, the former crusty and snappish.

"Well, get aboard!" he growled. "We can't wait all night."

The young lady looked up quickly, her sensitive face cringing beneath the rough command. Lorry stepped instantly to the conductor's side, shook his finger vigorously under his nose and exclaimed in no uncertain tones:

"Now, that's enough from you! If I hear another word out of you, I'll make you sweat blood before tomorrow morning. Understand, my friend."

"Aw, who are you?" demanded the conductor belligerently.

The "Style of a 'Dorothy Dodd'"

Let us assume that your shoes fit you. Now what next? What is most important? Unquestionably "Style!" Demand that a shoe shall possess "Style!" If it has style and little else you want it; if it has not style but everything else, you don't want it!

The "Style of a 'Dorothy Dodd'" is unique.

It cannot be duplicated by any other maker, because the "Dorothy Dodd" is a totally different construction from any other ladies' shoe made. It holds the foot firmly at the waist (that's the instep), prevents the toes from slipping forward, and thus gives a correct poise in walking. Yet it makes the foot look nearly a whole size smaller. That's curious, and you won't believe it till you see it.

Just for once try the "Style of a 'Dorothy Dodd'"

Paducah yesterday took another hard fought game from Jackson, Tenn. by a score of 7 to 3, making three straights from Jackson. Since the league opened Paducah has played six games, losing only one.

The game was well contested by the Jackson boys, but Paducah did not have to do much. Jackson is crippled badly, Gaston and Headley being injured. Le Compte, for Paducah, played his usual excellent game at short and is fast demonstrating his superiority over any other short stop in the league. Coppock, Paducah's Dayton, O., center fielder, is stealing bases better than any other man on the team. He is young and quick. "Captain" Sexton got another three and two base hit yesterday swelling his batting average greatly. Betts, the Jackson team's strongest pitcher, was batted rather heavily. Paducah seems to have taken on a great deal of "ginger." Mackey pitched a fine game yesterday and Clifford played his usual excellent game, while Paducah's fielding was admirable.

The following is the official score furnished by Scorer Walter Wilkins and shows the work of each player.

YESTERDAY'S K. I. T. RESULTS.

AT VINCENNES.

Vincennes, May 27—Two new players arrived yesterday from Owensboro to strengthen Vincennes. They are Shortstop Grayling and Third Baseman Thomas. They succeed Wortham and Sherman. Grayland and Hucks made the first double play of the season.

Morris, of Hopkinsville, made the only home run of the series. Rusie was last night elected captain of the Vincennes team, which left for Owensboro. Rusie, who was five times at bat, made three hits, took his base once on an error and was once hit by the pitcher.

Score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Vincennes,	1	2	1	0	0	1	0	1	6
Hopkinsville,	0	1	0	0	0	1	1	0	3

Errors, Vincennes 4, Hopkinsville 6. Batteries, Walsh, Kelly, Edwards, Street.

Henderson,	0	0	0	1	2	1	0	0	4
Owensboro,	0	0	0	1	1	0	1	0	3

Batteries: Henderson, Gardner and Walters. Owensboro, Gerard and Rutledge.

AT CAIRO.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Clarksville,	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	4	5
Cairo,	1	1	0	0	1	2	5	0	10

Battery: Clarksville, Holmes and Holmes; Cairo, Brockett and Ott. Hits, off Cairo 5; off Clarksville 14. Brockett struck out 13, Holmes 5. Feature of the game, Powers of Cairo, made home run.

BASEBALL NOTES.

Pete Dunn, who umpired yesterday's game, will probably sign as an official umpire. His work has been better than any other umpire who has appeared here this season and he stated this morning that he had been urged to go in and would probably accept. There will be eight official umpires instead of four, as intended, and every city in the league will have one who will remain at home and act only while the teams are playing home series. This will save transportation and it is thought will serve as well and will be economical in the long run. They will each receive $5 per game.

Last night three professional K. I. T. league teams were here, Paducah, Clarksville and Jackson. Clarksville was en route home from Cairo to meet Paducah today for a series of three games while Jackson was en route to Cairo to play a series of games at Cairo. Jackson will return home to Jackson on Saturday and will meet Paducah for a series of three games after which Paducah will return home to meet Vincennes, Ind., for a series of three games.

The crowds continue to increase at the park with every game. The big time will come when Cairo gets here. If there is anything Paducah wants to get hold of its Cairo, the most ancient enemy, "baseballically" speaking, we ever had. There will be a regular rooters' club.

In Henderson merchants have offered many things to the first man knocking a home run, one being a month's barbering free and the other a box of fine cigars. Somebody in Paducah ought to make an offer like that to stimulate the boys.

Paducah is doing better than any of the clubs and the other cities are very envious over the enthusiasm manifested here. The visiting ball players declare they never saw the people go so wild over a game as they do here.

One of the Jackson boys made a score on an error yesterday which many thought was a home run. It was a good hit and the batter scored on it, but it was not counted a home run.

Somebody ought to devise a "nick name" for the Paducah team. Something short and expressive should be adopted. The Henderson boys have dubbed their team the "Hens."

Everybody would like to see Pete Dunn sign as official umpire. Pete is a good, honest boy with a quick eye and has given excellent satisfaction.

Paducah has left home for several games. Doubtless by the time she gets back the foul lines on the local grounds will be marked off.

Paducah wants Betts, the crack Jackson pitcher and third baseman, and he wants to come here, but he hasn't got his release.

The Sun will present the first member of the Paducah team making a home run with a $5 hat.
